INTERNATIONAL TOLERANCE DAY

The United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) created and sponsors International Tolerance Day. The United Nations is committed to strengthening tolerance by fostering mutual understanding among cultures and peoples. Countries around the world celebrate International Tolerance Day on November 16 to encourage individuals and groups to practice tolerance, respect and dignity.

CHARACTER MOMENT

In this issue, we will focus on acceptance as a character trait to prevent bullying. Acceptance is the ability to see that others have a right to be their own unique person. Watch the video presented by Mrs. Nix, Psychologist, to learn more about acceptance.
